RE: Grand Jury Proceedings - Plaquemines Parish
Date: May 27, 2015

*****

A Grand Jury session was convened in Plaquemines Parish on Wednesday, May 27, 2015 and District Attorney Charles Ballay reports that indictments were returned against Calendria Rochell Houston, 26 year old female, and her husband, Xavier Montrex Houston, a 26 year old male, a Seaman in the Navy Reserve, who have been living on the naval air station in Belle Chasse. They are each charged with one count of Second Degree Murder, two counts of Second Degree Cruelty to Juveniles related to the deceased 3 ½ month old child and twin sister, and four counts of Cruelty to Juveniles of the remaining four children, being a one year old set of twins, a three year old and a four and a half year old.

All of the incidents occurred in their residence in base housing. The criminal investigation was handled by NCIS New Orleans.

As a result of the indictments the defendants were arrested and bond on the mother is set at $400,000 and on the father at $300,000 by Judge Kevin Conner. Arraignment is set for July 27, 2015.
